

Bible for Children
offer

Jonah and the Big Fish

Written by: Edward

Illustrated by: Jonathan Hay
Alastair Paterson

Edited by: Mary-Anne S.

Translated by: Mel Lorell
Cheryn Mabano Abugho

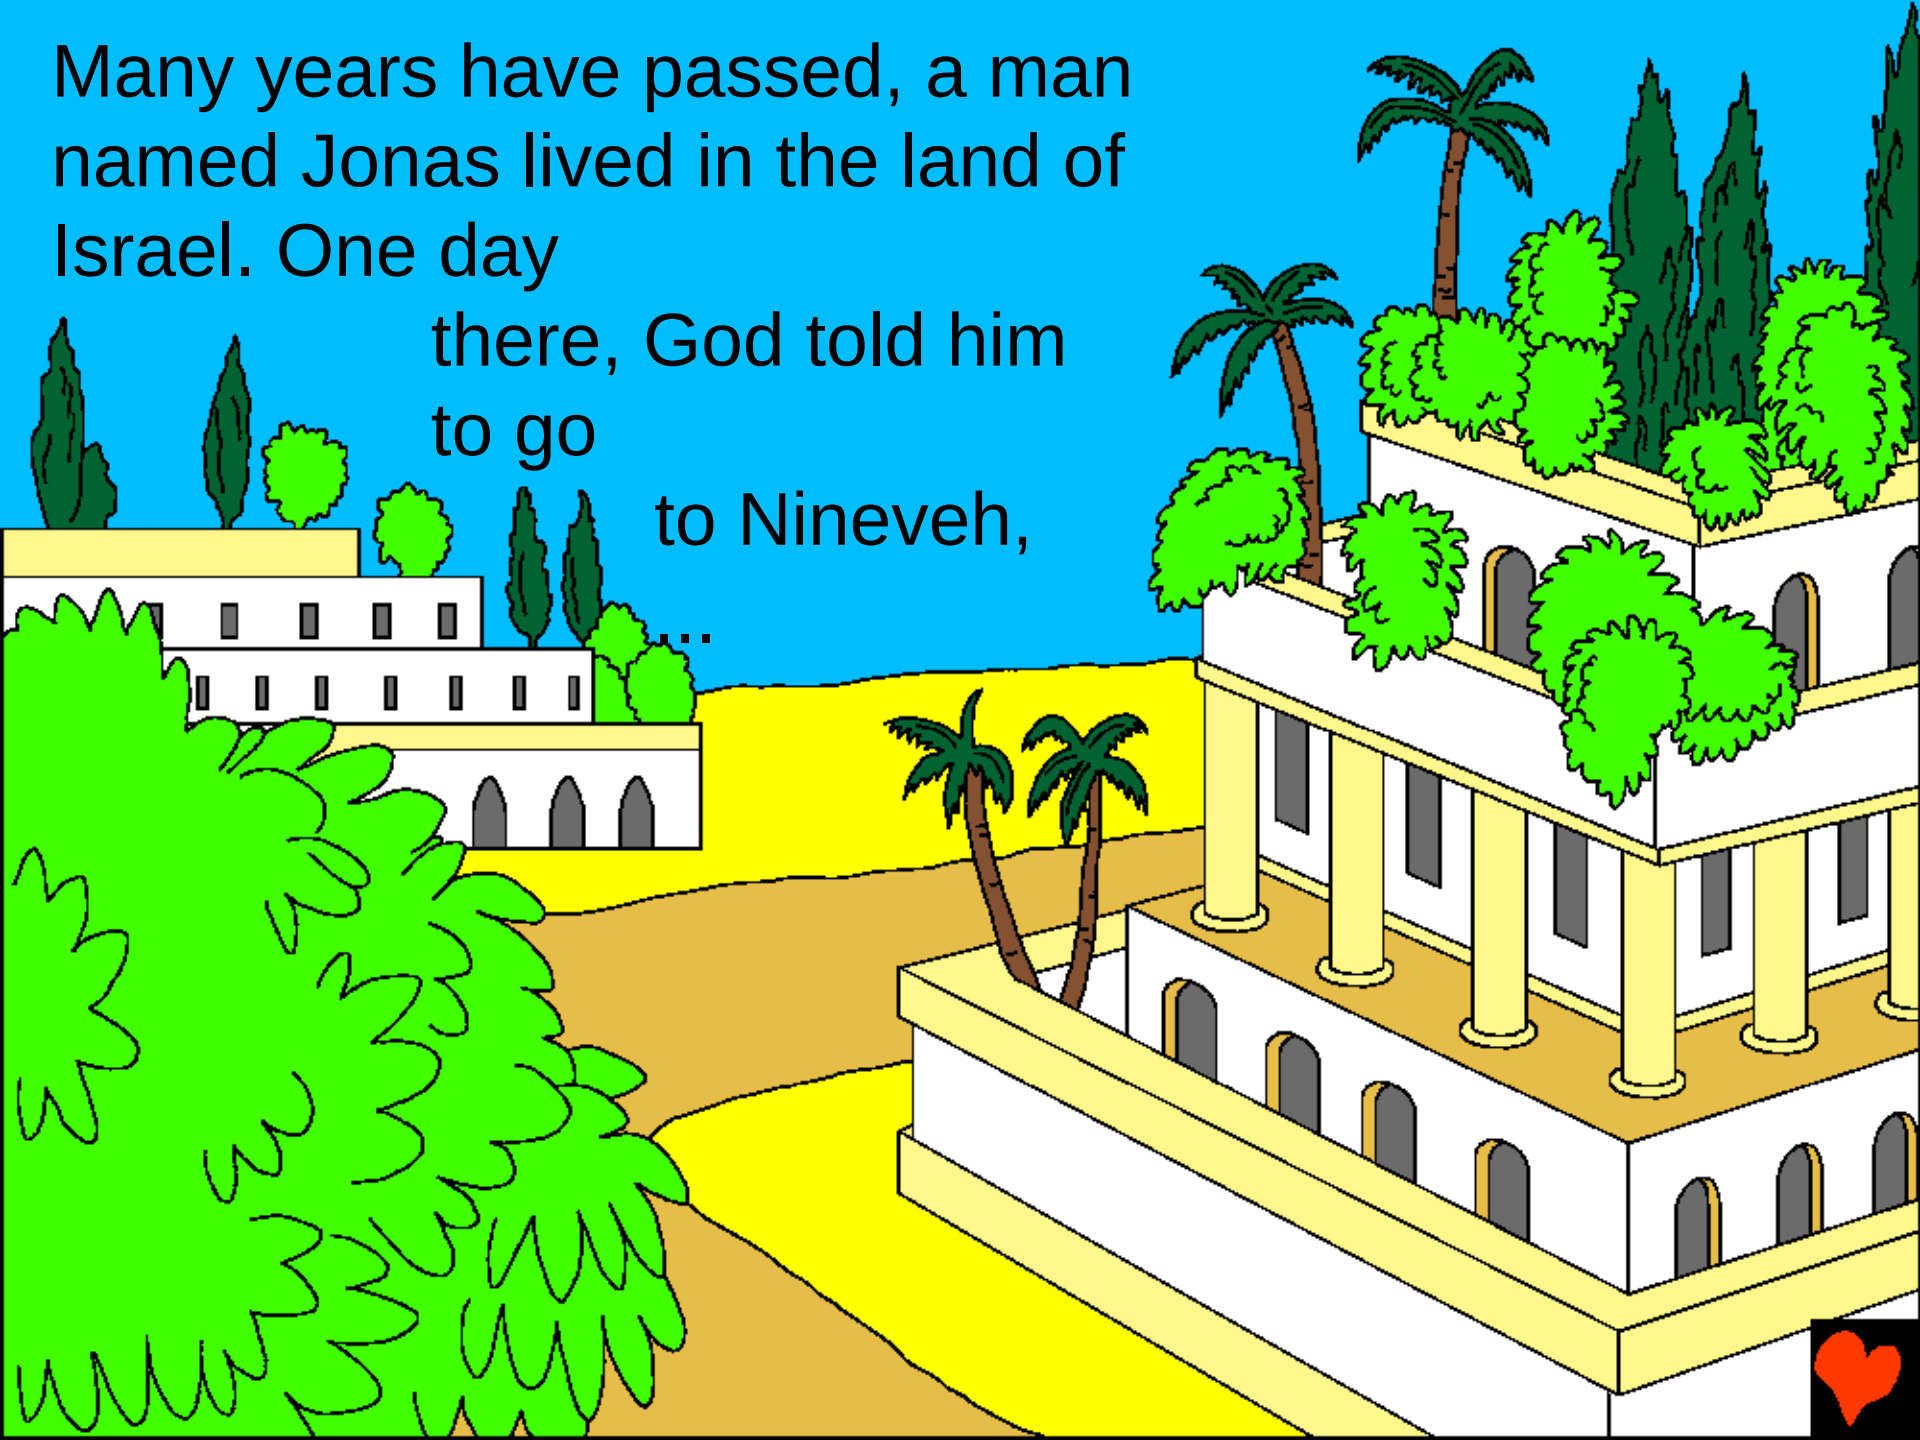

Published by: Bible for Children

©2023 Bible for Children, Inc.

Permission: You may copy or distribute this that story, just don't sell.

Many years have passed, a man named Jonas lived in the land of Israel. One day
there, God told him
to go
to Nineveh,

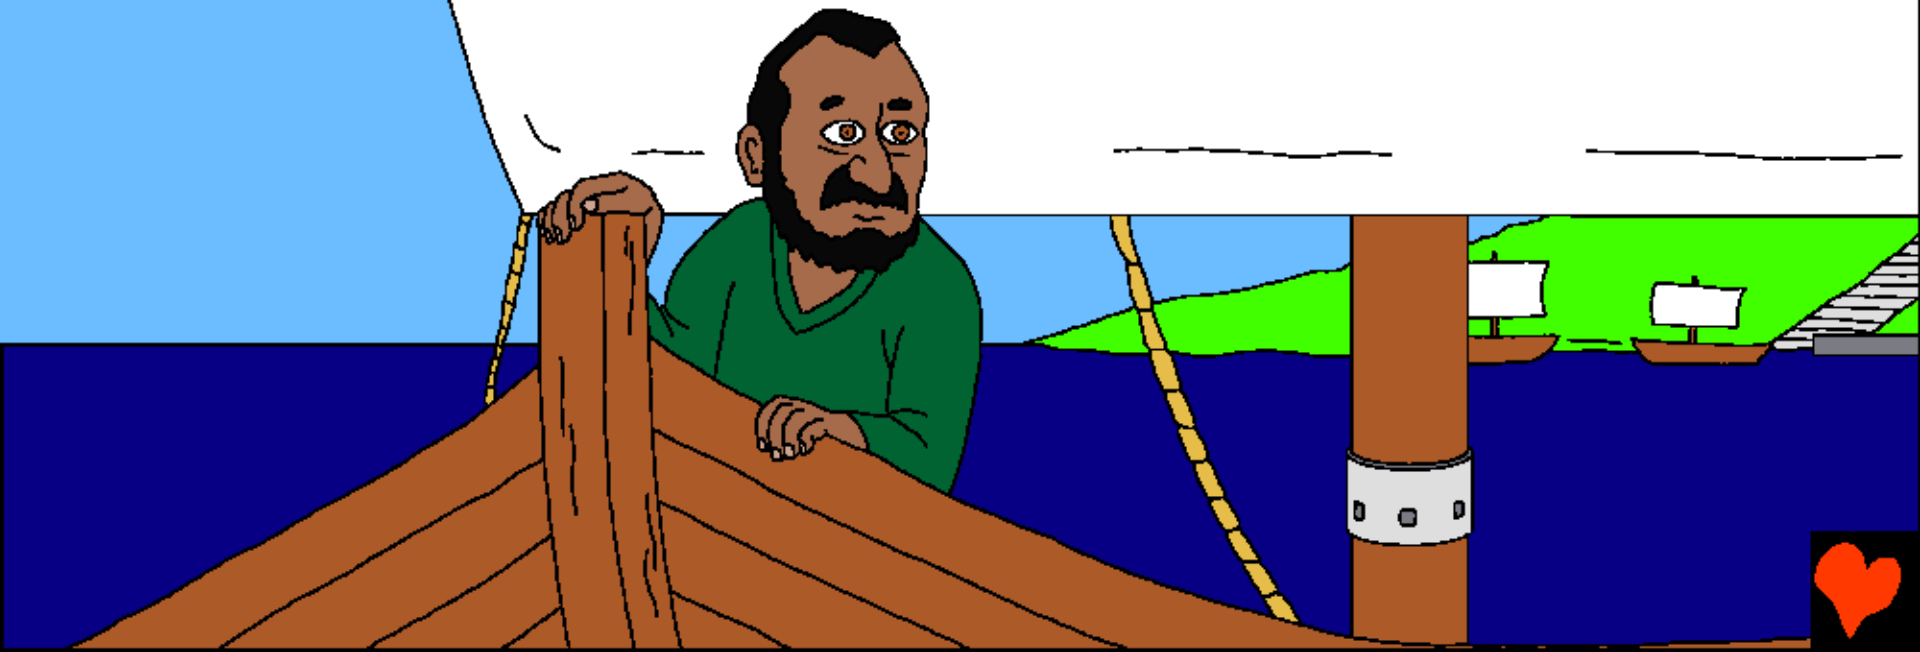

... the largest, and most powerful city in the world. Jonas had to warn all people there

who know God
that they are so bad.

Jonas rebelled against God!
Instead of going to Nineveh, Jonas boarded a ship and sailed in the opposite direction toward a place called Tarsis.

The Lord God sent a strong wind to the sea.
There was a big storm! The sailors feared that the ship would break and sink.

The storm worsened. Due to fear, the sailors prayed to their gods and threw all cargo into the sea to save the ship. But nothing helped.

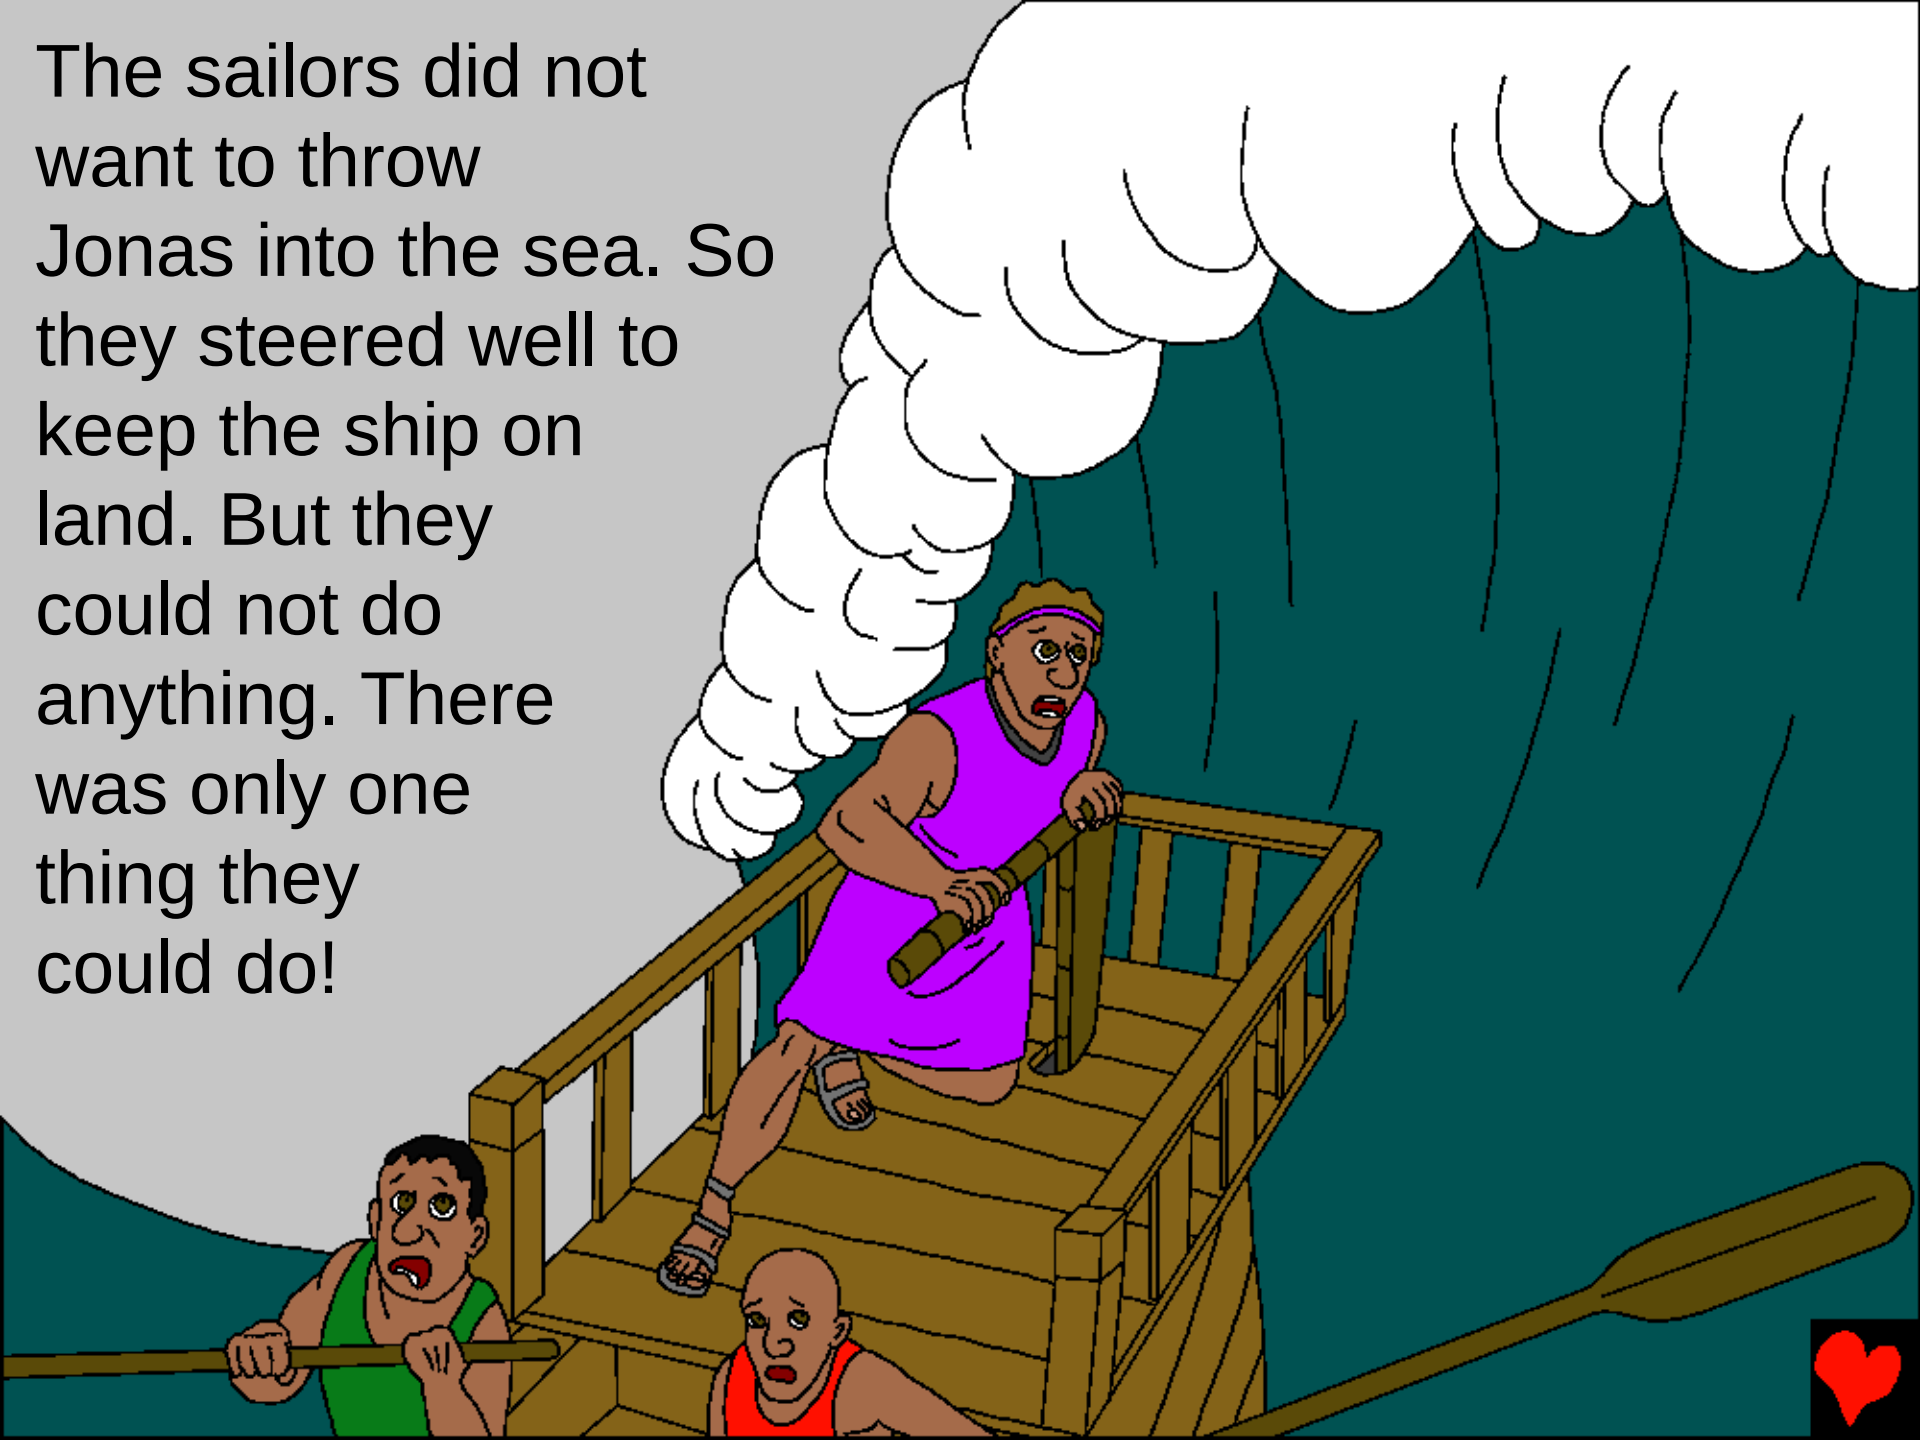

Only Jonas was aboard who did not pray. He simply lay inside the ship, falling asleep. The captain saw him. 'What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Pray to your God! Maybe God will think of us, so we don't fall.'

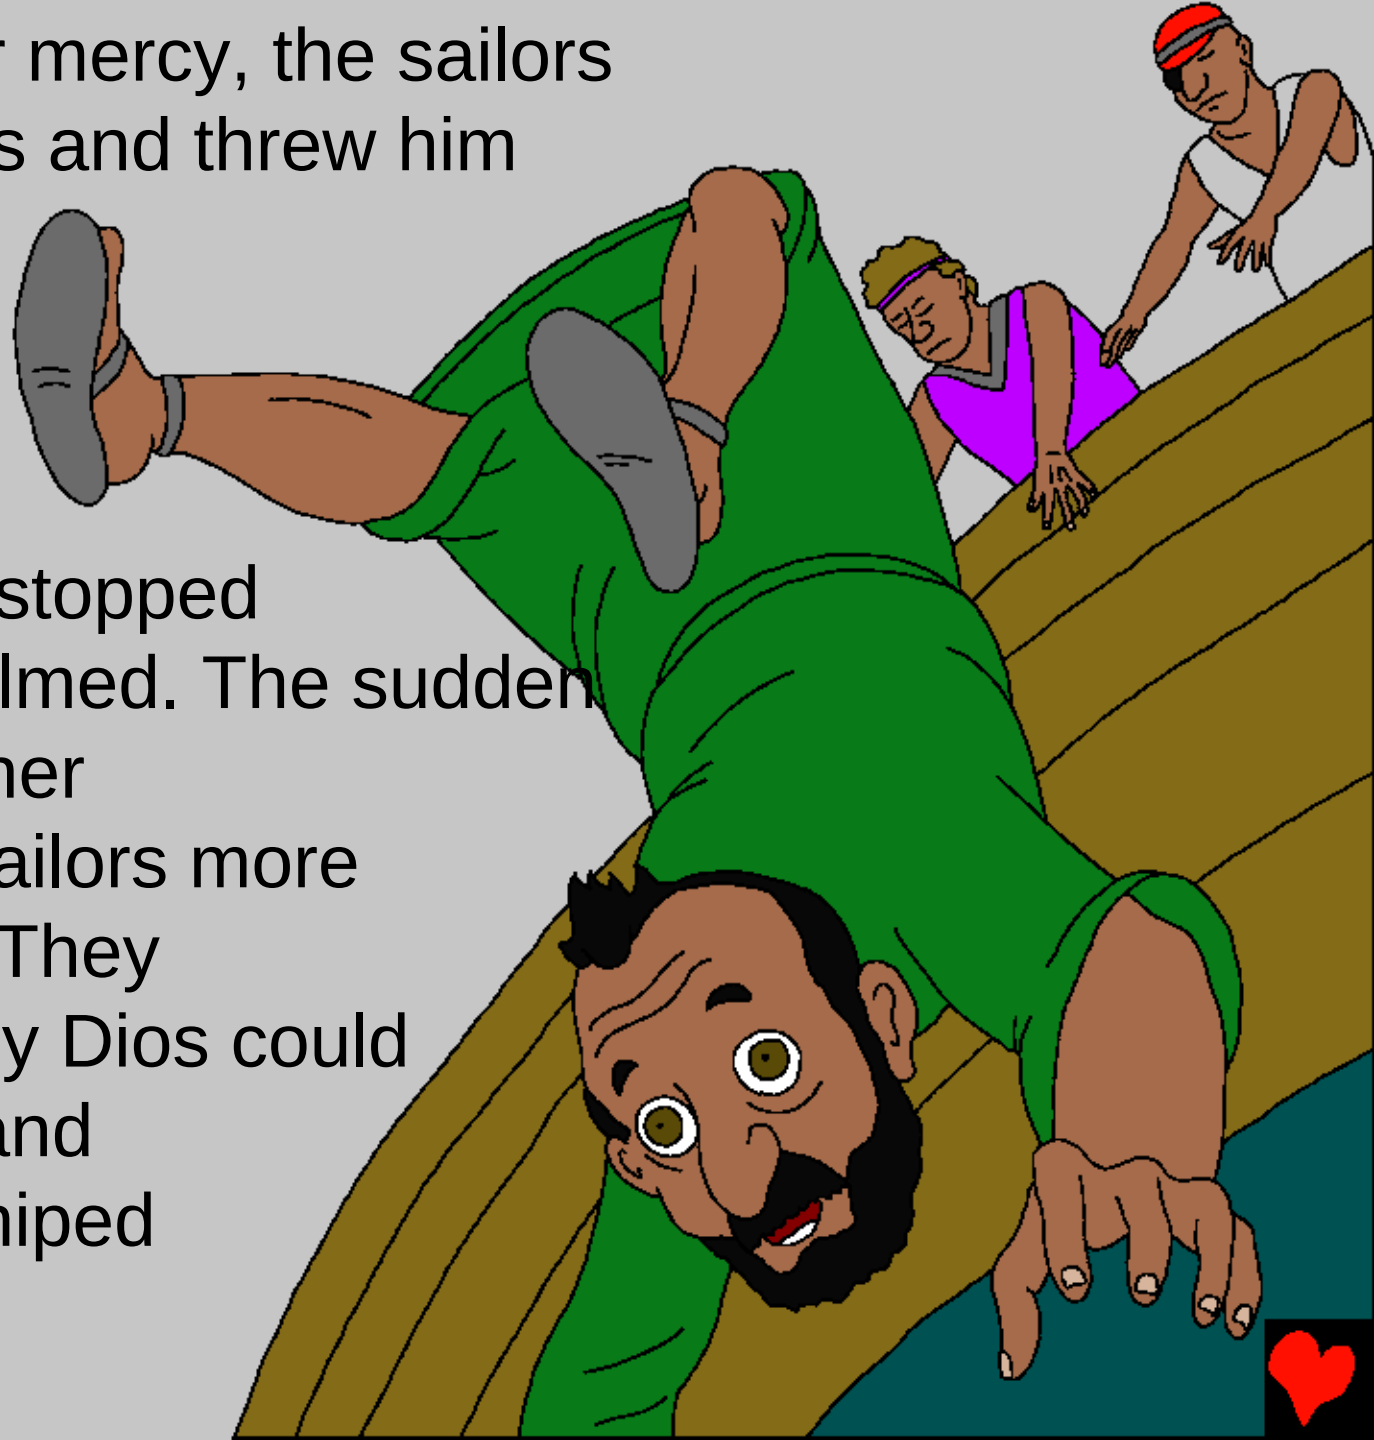

me this great storm has come upon you.'

The sailors did not want to throw Jonas into the sea. So they steered well to keep the ship on land. But they could not do anything. There was only one thing they could do!

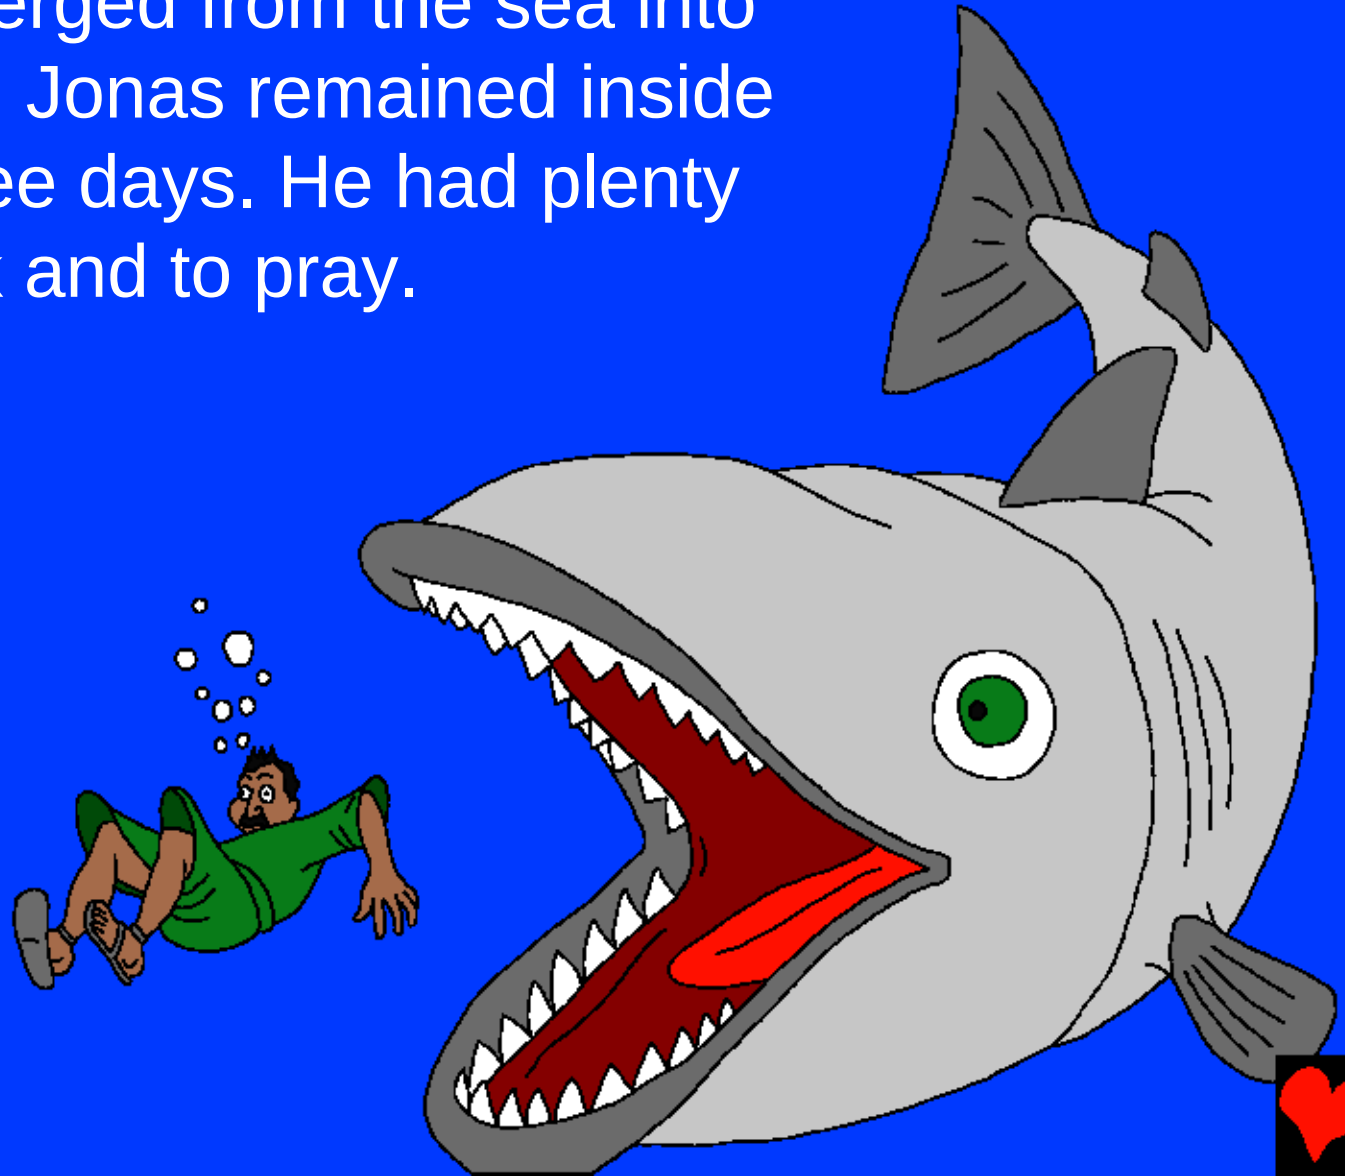

After praying for mercy, the sailors embraced Jonas and threw him to the side. When Jonas disappeared under the waves, the sea stopped and the wind calmed. The sudden change in weather frightened the sailors more than the storm. They realized that only Dios could do this. In fear and awe, they worshiped the Ginoo.

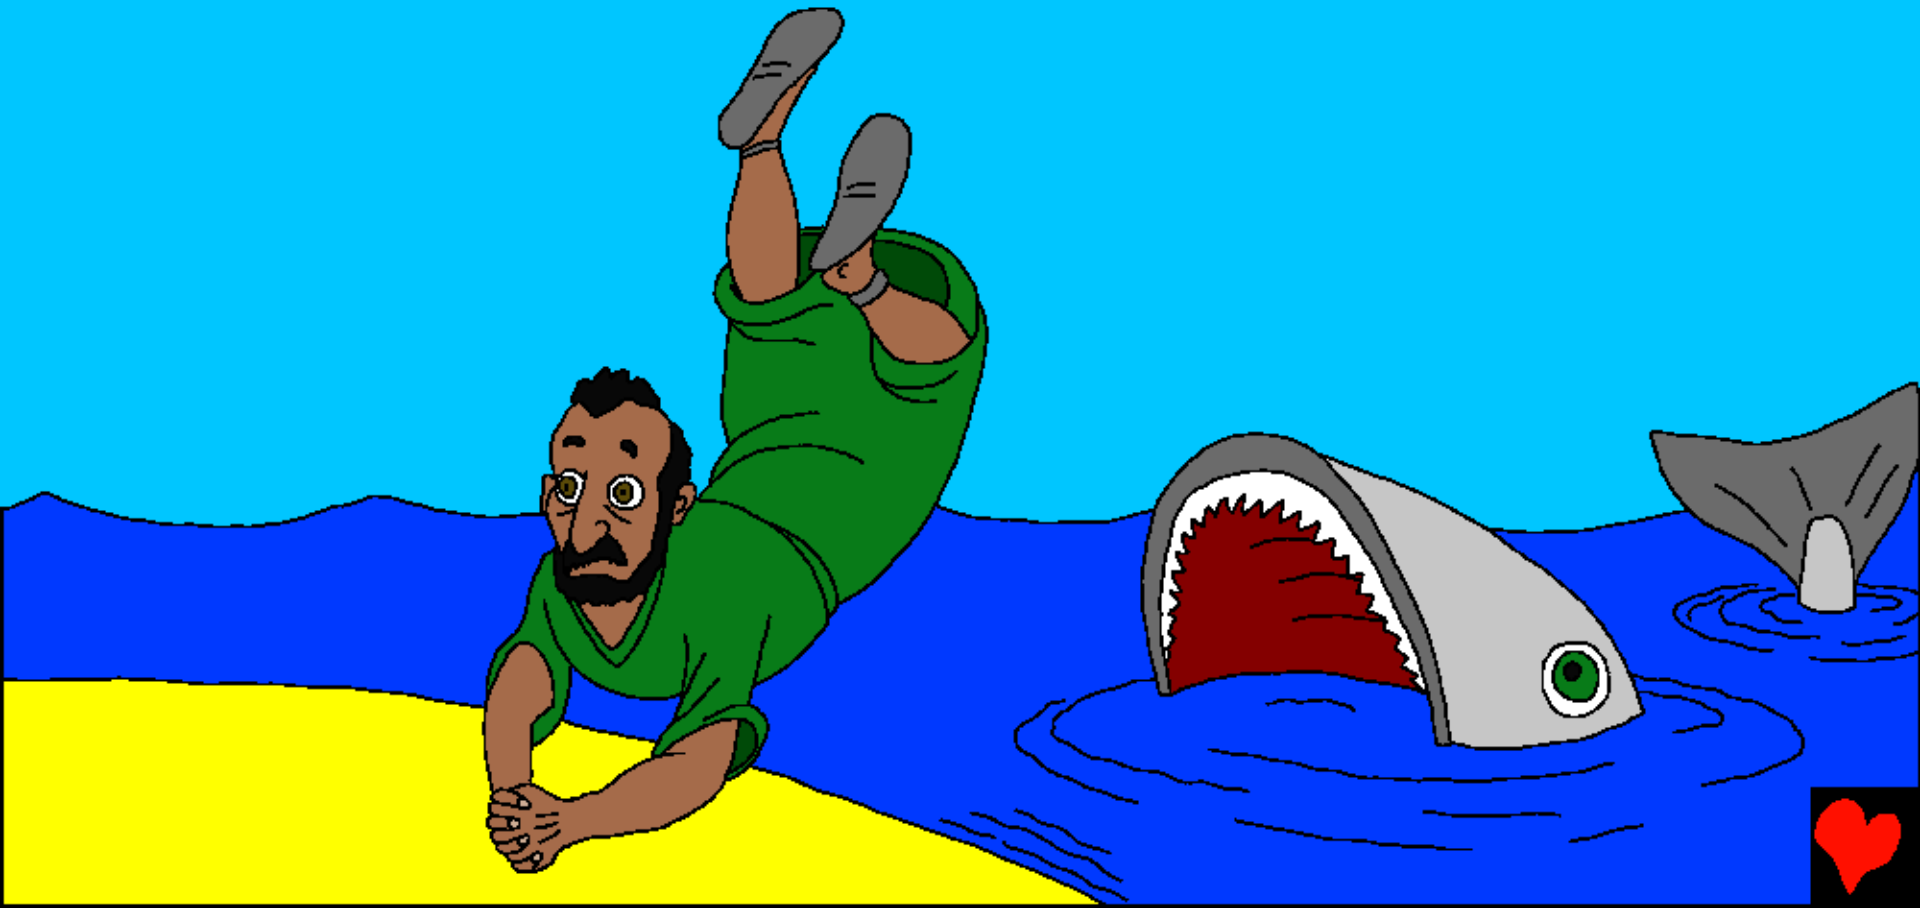

Meanwhile, the faithful messenger received great wonder. With no ability to unload the depths of the sea, Jonas realized that no one could save him from drowning. He drowned as well - but Dios had another plan.

The GINOO prepared a great fish that would swallow Jonas. The fish arrived at the right time! One swallow and Jonas emerged from the sea into the fish's belly. Jonas remained inside the fish for three days. He had plenty of time to think and to pray.

After the third day, Jonas promised to obey Dios.
Immediately, Dios told the fish, and it spat Jonas onto the shore.

Later, Dios told Jonas to go to Ninive and proclaim Dios's word. At that moment, Jonas went! Jonas entered the city, shouting, "In a short time, Nineve will be destroyed."

The people of Nineve believed in Dios's word. They walked without food, and wore sackcloth to show Dios that they repented of their sins. Even the king humbled himself before Dios. He left his throne, wore sackcloth, and sat on ashes. He commanded everyone to turn from their wicked ways and sins, and to pray that they would be forgiven by the

They were forgiven by Dios! It would have been a wonderful day of joy in Nineve if the people had realized

Why was Jonas
angry?
He told Dios, "I know that
Very well.
Jonas!

Why was Jonas angry? He told Dios, "I know that you are a kind Dios, compassionate, gentle in anger, and great in goodness." In other words, Jonas knew that God always forgives those who repent of their sins and obey the Word of God. It seems Jonas does not like the people of Nineveh. He does not want them to be forgiven.

Jonas was very angry with God and said, “Take my life from me; for death is better for me than life.”

Jonas sat outside the city, waiting for what God would do next. The Lord God prepared a plant with large leaves. It grew quickly, and it shaded Jonas from the heat of the sun all day.

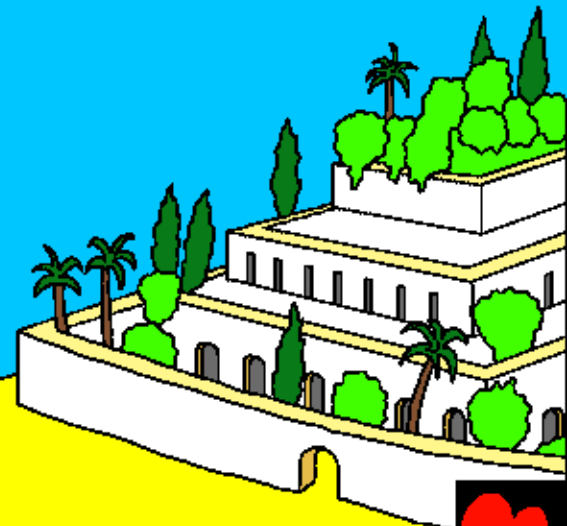

The next morning, God sent a worm that killed the plant. Then, the Lord prepared heat, a strong wind that struck Jonas until he thought he would die. All of this made Jonas even angrier.

Then the Lord said to Jonas, "Do you have the right to be angry? You pity the situation that you did not create and did not raise. This happened one night and died one night."

in one night.

Why wouldn't I have pity for the people of Nineveh, that great city, with its thousands of people?

Jonas and the Great Fish

Story from the Word of God, the Bible, found in

Jonas

\\"The coming of Your Words gives light.\" Psalm 119:130

The End

This story from the Bible tells us about the wonder that God, who made us, wants us to know Him.

God knows that we have done many evils. He called...

This is the sin. Death is the punishment for sin. But God loves us very much. He sent His only Son, Jesus, to die on the Cross and be punished for your sins. Then Jesus rose and returned to Heaven! If you believe Jesus will ask you to be forgiven for your sins, He will do that!

He will come and dwell within you now,
and you will live with Him until eternity.

If you believe this is true, say to God: Ginoong Jesus, I believe that You are God, and became man to die for my sins, and now You have lived again. Come into my life and forgive my sins, so that my life may change now, and then I will join You.

until eternity. Help me to obey You and live for You as Your child. Amen.

Read the Bible and talk to God every day! John 3:16

