60 Heaven, God's Lovely Home

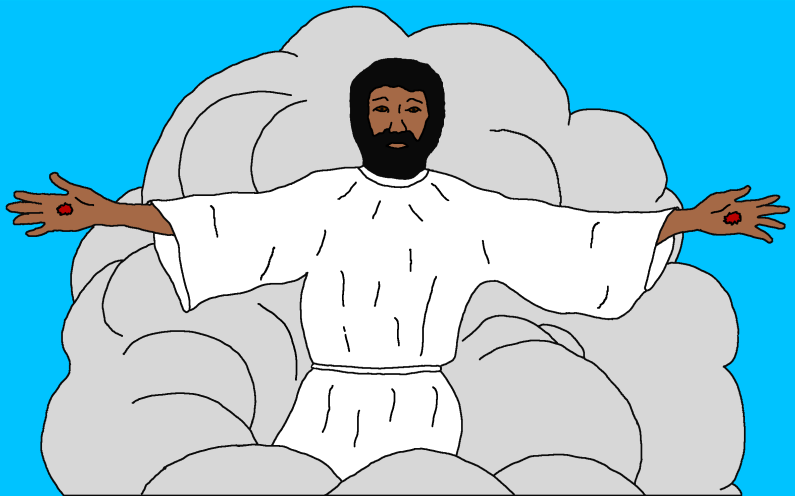

60 Heaven, the Beautiful Home of God

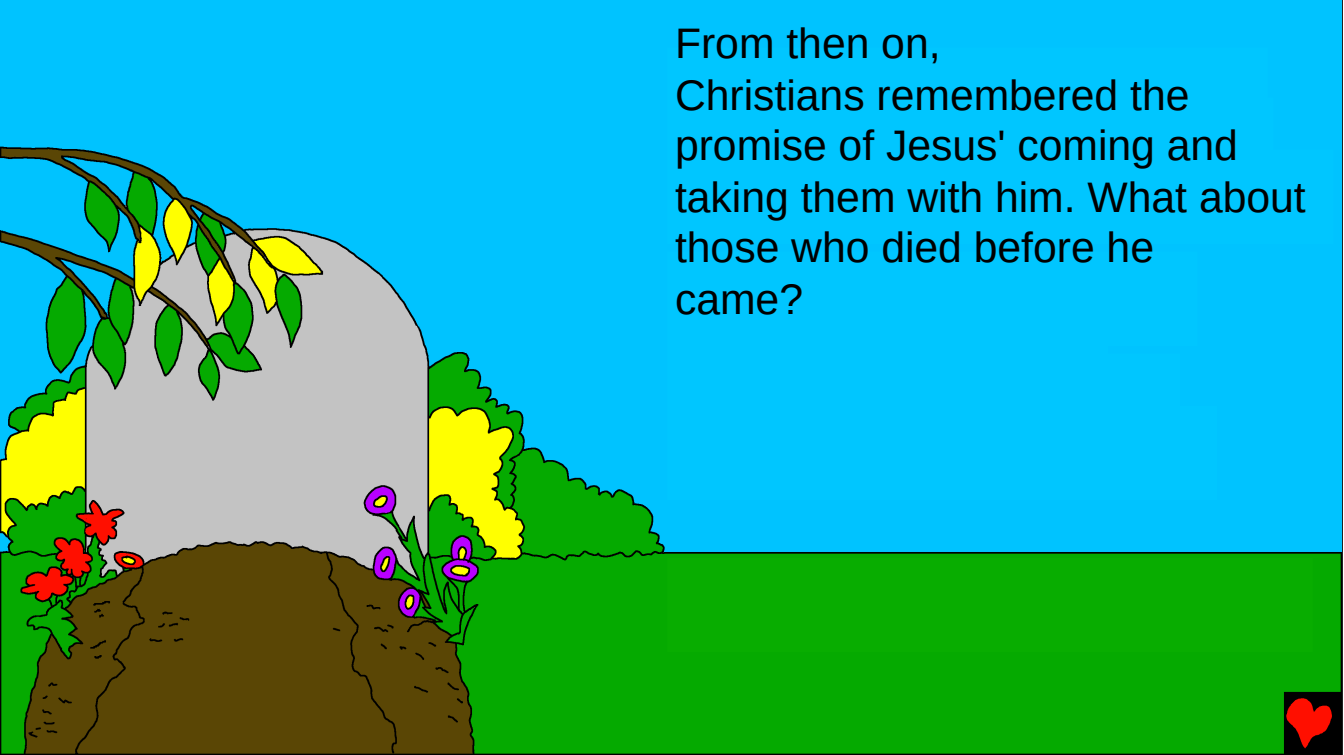

When Jesus was still on earth, he told his disciples about heaven, which he called 'My Father's House,' and he said, "There are many beautiful houses, and heaven is bigger and more beautiful than the house on earth.

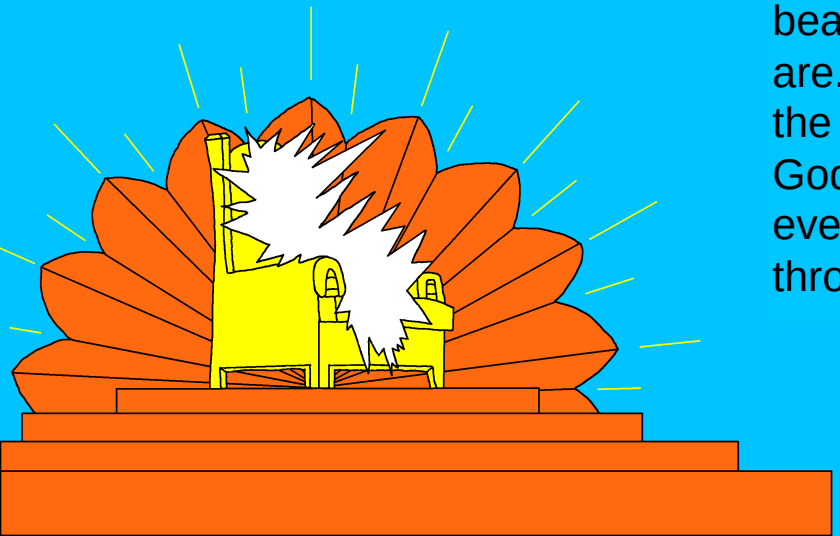

Jesus said to them, "I am going to prepare a place for you, and I will come again and take you to me. " After he was raised from the dead, he went up to heaven. As they watched, he was alone, and a cloud overshadowed him.

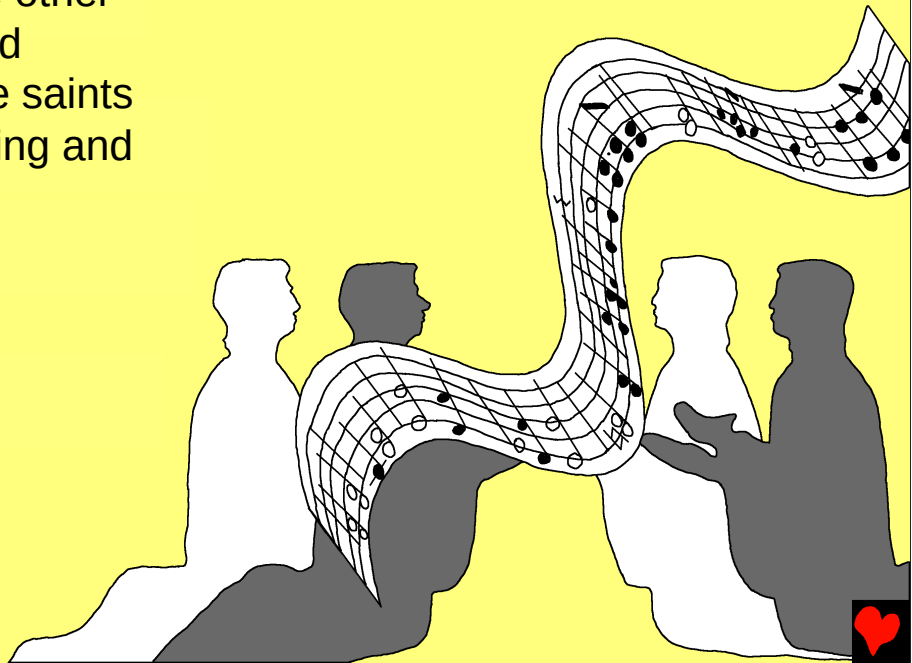

From then on,
Christians remembered the promise of Jesus' coming and taking them with him. What about those who died before he came?

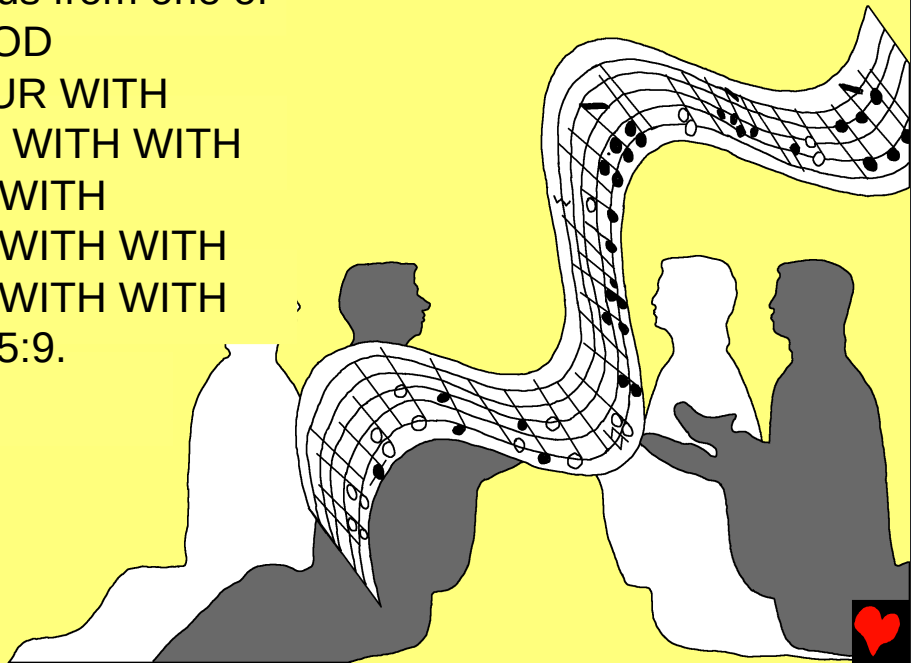

Revelation is the last book of Scripture.
It tells us how beautiful the heavens are. The heavens are the dwelling place of God. God is everywhere, and his throne is in the heavens.

The angels and the other creatures worshiped God, and so did the saints who had died, singing and praising God.

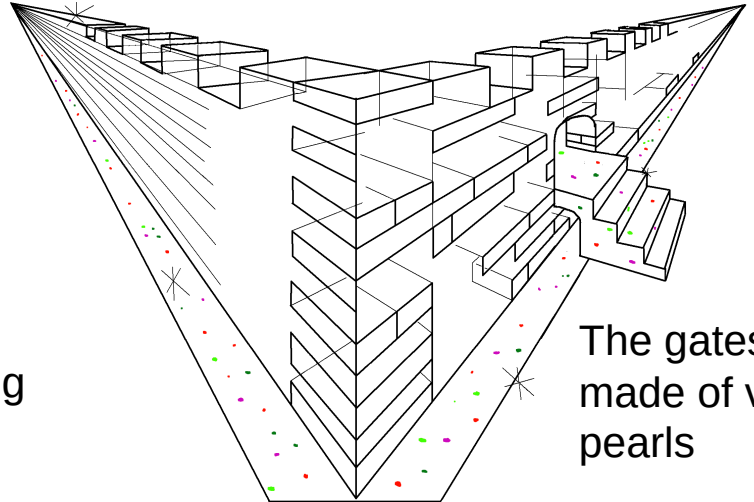

Here are a few words from one of the songs: WHY GOD WAS RELATED OUR WITH WITH YOUR WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH
WITH WITH WITH WITH WITH
GOD. - Revelation 5:9.

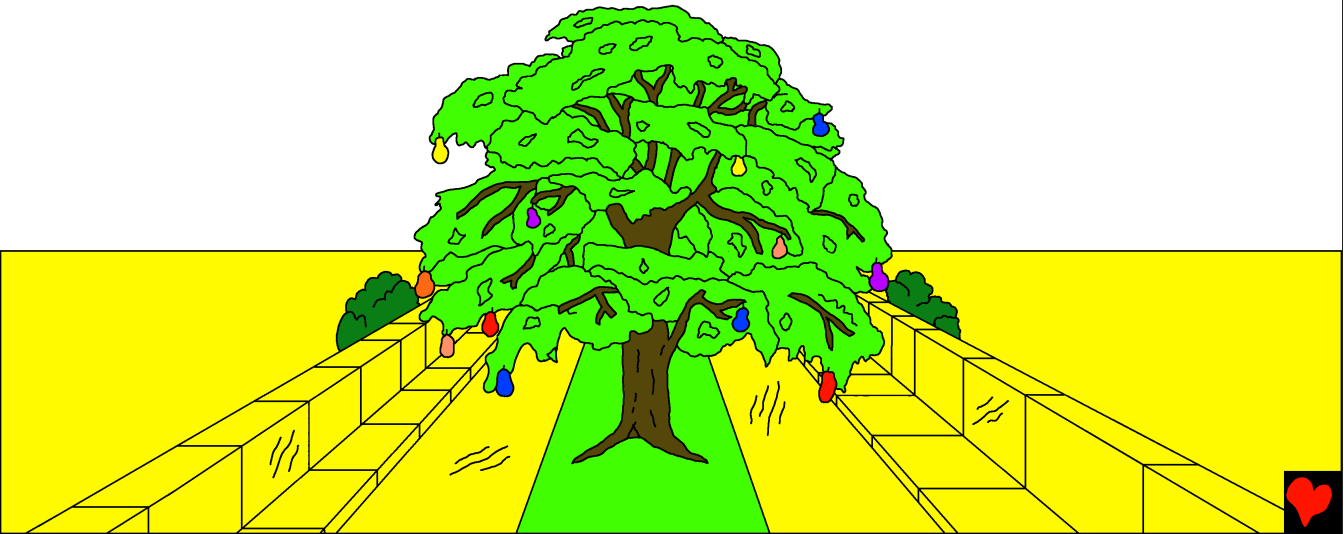

The final pages of the Bible describe heaven as the New Jerusalem. It is very large and has a hollow outer wall.

The base of the wall was filled with jewels and precious stones, shining in a variety of

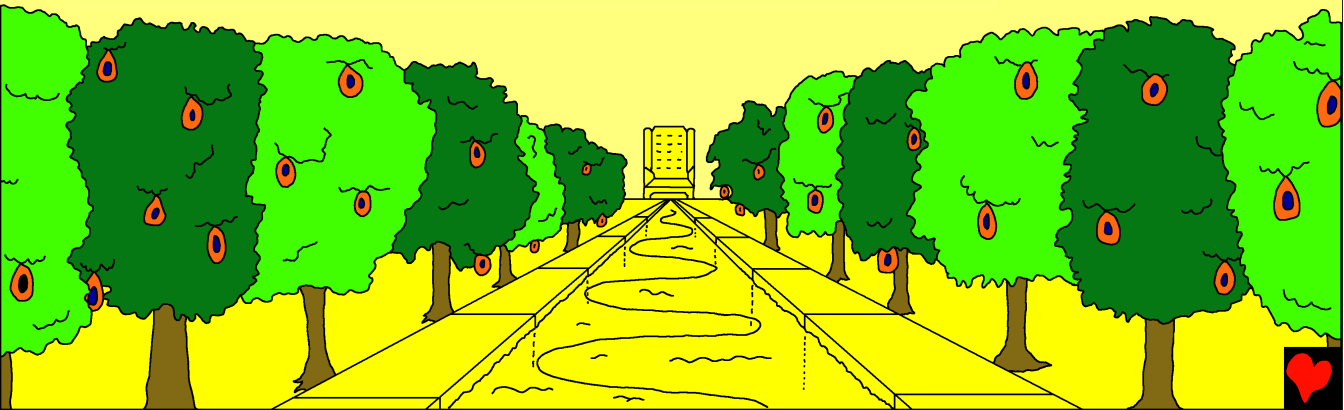

The gates were made of very large pearls

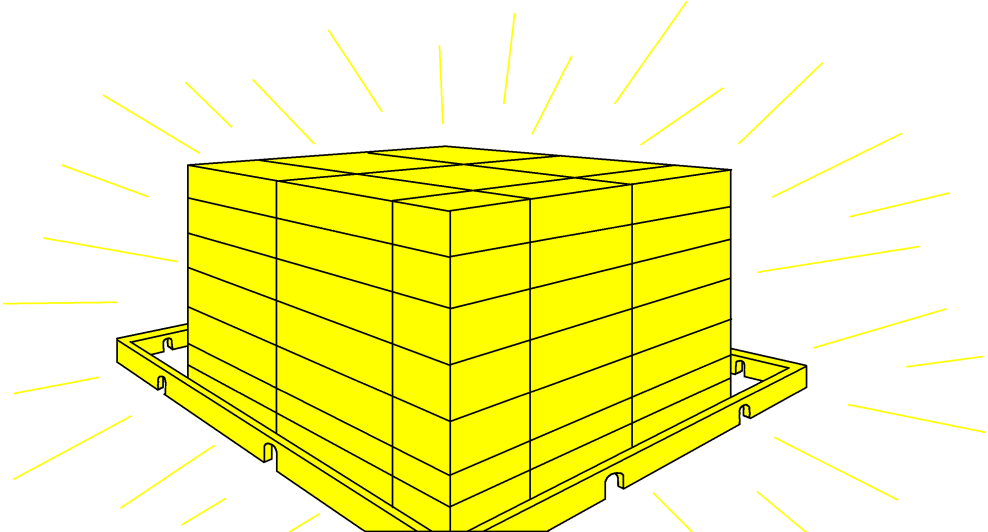

The pearl gates were always open. Let's go in and see. The inner part of the city was made of pure gold, its streets of pure gold.

A clear river flowed down from the throne of God. On either side of the river was the tree of life, which appeared in the garden of Eden. It bore twelve kinds of fruit, one for each month, and the leaves of the tree of life were for the healing of the nations.

And the heavens had no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to give light; and the glory of God shone upon them; and there was no night there.

And the beasts of the heavens are different, and they are all one in kind; the wolves and the sheep are one in kind, and the lions are one in kind, and the lions are one in kind; and they do no harm, and they do no war, saith Jehovah, in all thy holy mountains.

And it came to pass in the midst of us that there was no man in the heavens, and there was no voice of anger, and there was no strife, and there

The gates of heaven are open, for there is no thief, no murderer, no cheater, no evildoer, and no sin in heaven.

And there was no more weeping in heaven with him; and the saints wept in this world, and their weeping was wiped out from heaven.

There will be no more death, no more mourning, no more weeping, no more pain, no more division, no more burial, and there will be joy and gladness forever with the Lord.

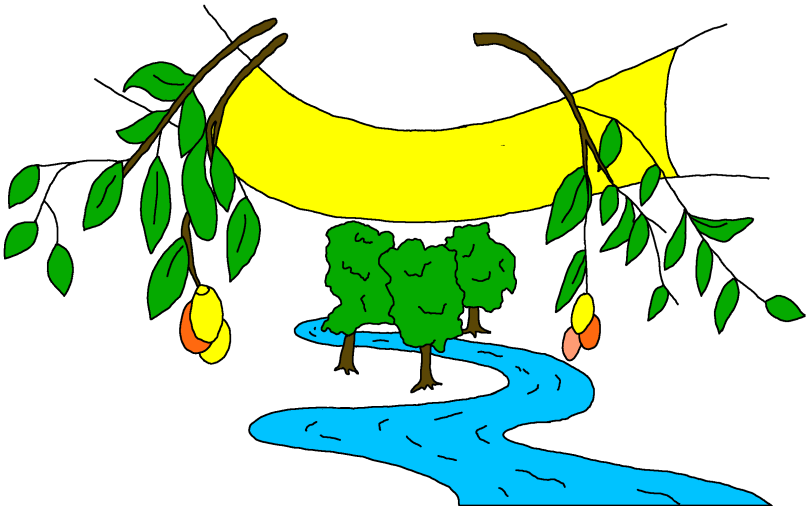

Most beautiful of all, Heaven is for all boys and girls (and adults too) who believe in Jesus Christ as their Savior and follow Him as their Lord.

And there is a great book in heaven called the Lamb's Book of Life. Do you know whose names are written on it? Do you not know who it is that believes in Jesus?

Finally, the Spirit and the bride say, "Come! " And let the one who hears say", Come! " And let the one who is thirsty come. Let the one who wants take the water of life free.

The End

This Bible account tells us about the wonderful God who made us and wants us to know Him.

But God loved us so much that he sent his only Son, Jesus, who was raised from the dead, to live forever with him.

If you believe this, say to God, 'Lord Jesus, I believe that you are God; you were a man and you are alive. Come and forgive me, so that I may be with you forever. Help me to obey you and live as a son. Amen.
