60 Heaven, God's Beautiful Home

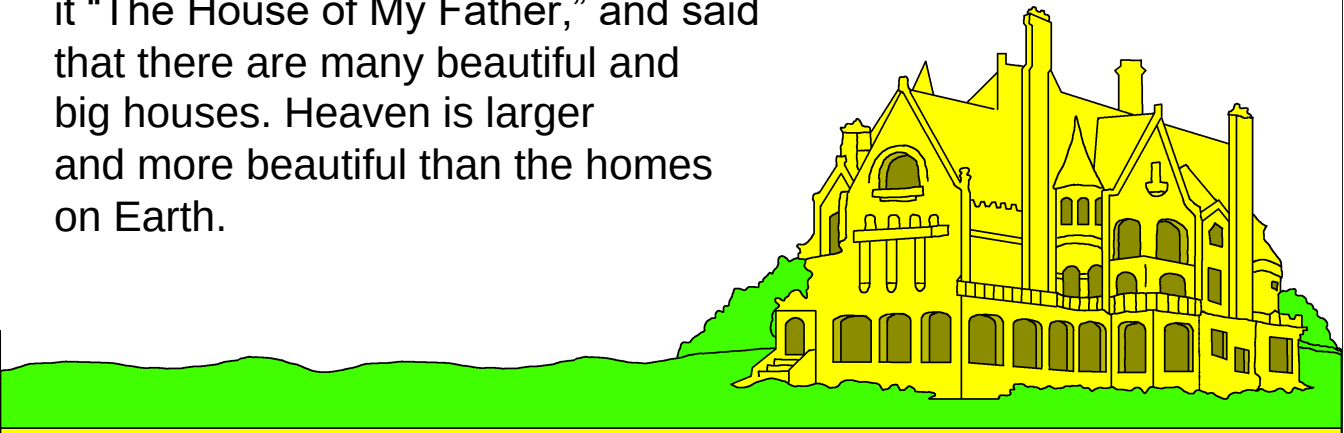

60 Heaven, God's Beautiful Home

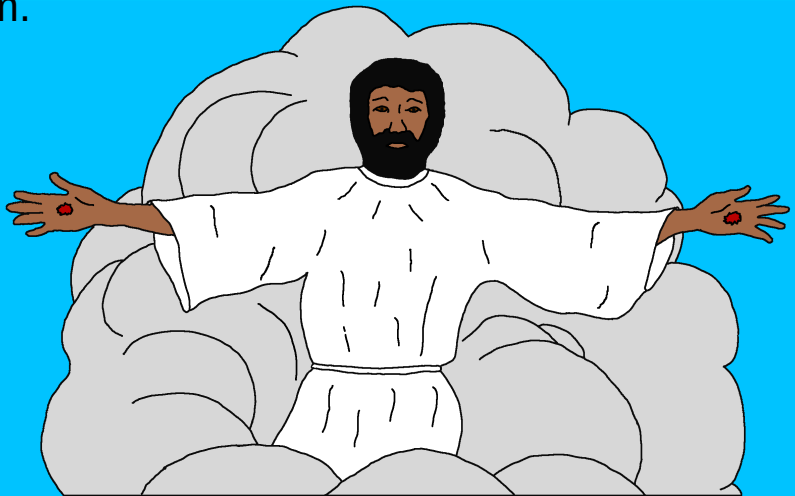

Written by: Edward Hughes

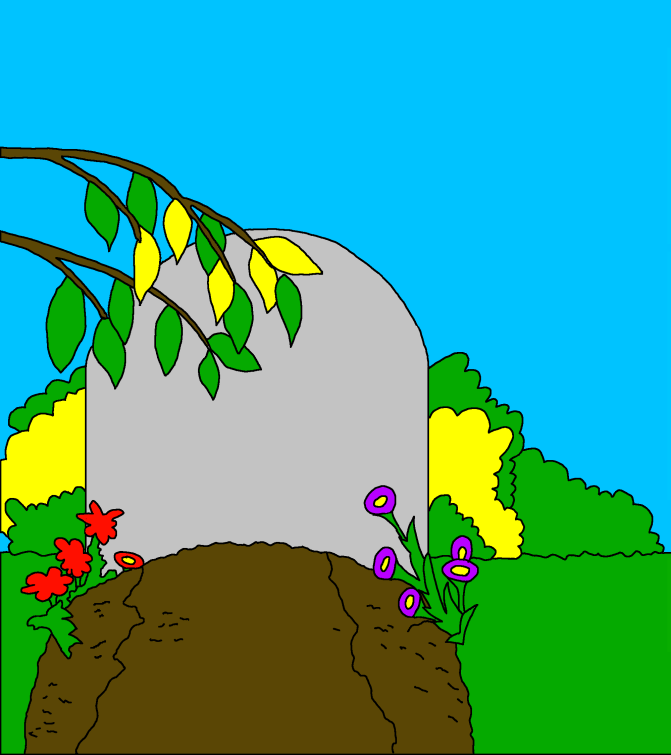

From the very

Even here on Earth, Jesus told His disciples about Heaven. He called it “The House of My Father,” and said that there are many beautiful and big houses. Heaven is larger and more beautiful than the homes on Earth.

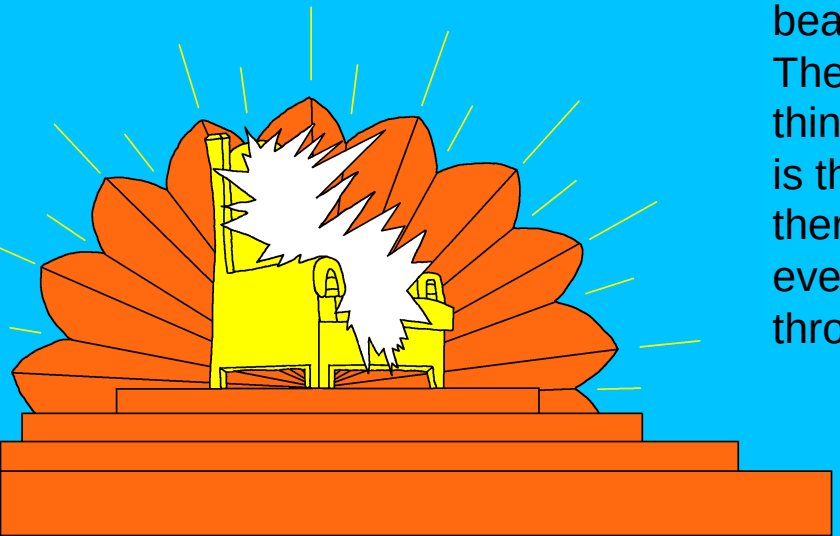

Jesus said, “I am going to prepare a place for you. Then I will return and bring you to me.” Jesus went to Heaven after He was resurrected. While His disciples were watching, Jesus disappeared, and the cloud received him until he was no longer seen by them.

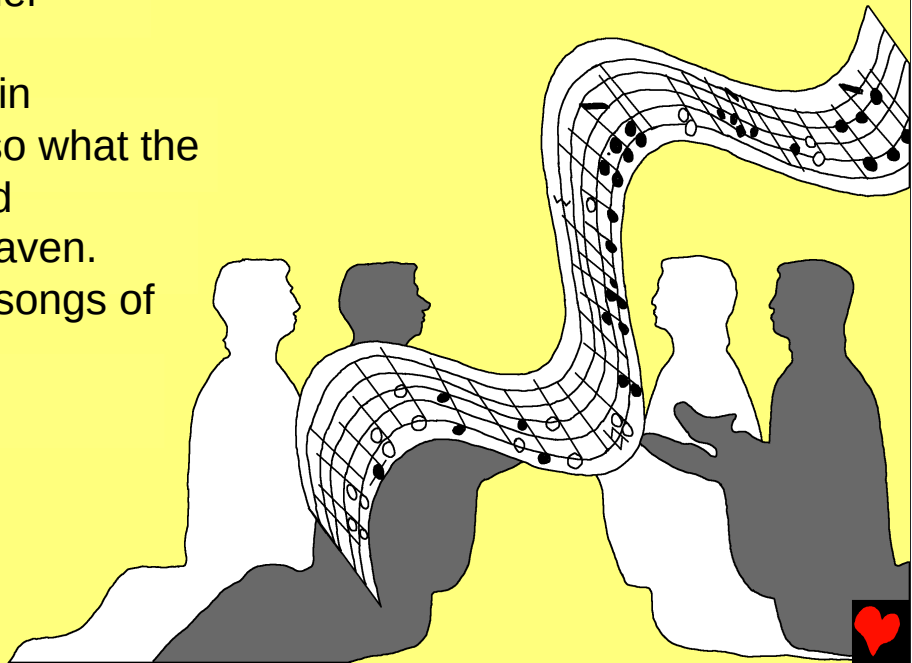

Since then, Christians remember Jesus' promise that He will return and take them. Jesus said that He would return suddenly without warning. But what about Christians who die before He returns? The Bible says they should go straight to Jesus. Their loss of body is their joining with Him.

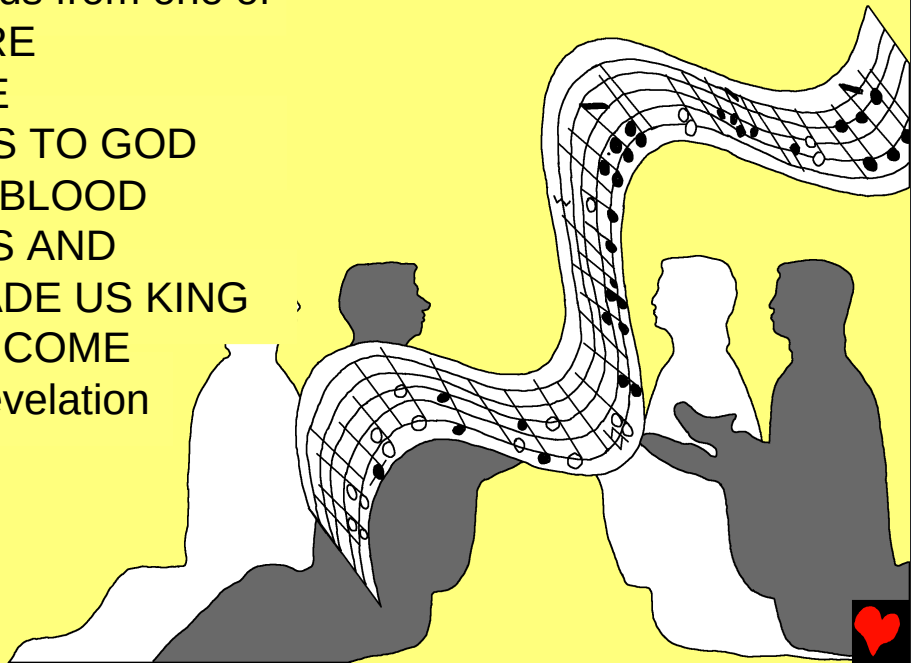

Revelation is the last book of the Bible.
It tells us how beautiful Heaven is.
The most beautiful thing there in Heaven is that God lives there. God is everywhere, but His throne is in Heaven.

The angels and other heavenly beings worship God there in Heaven. That is also what the dead people of God did and went to Heaven. They sang special songs of praise to God.

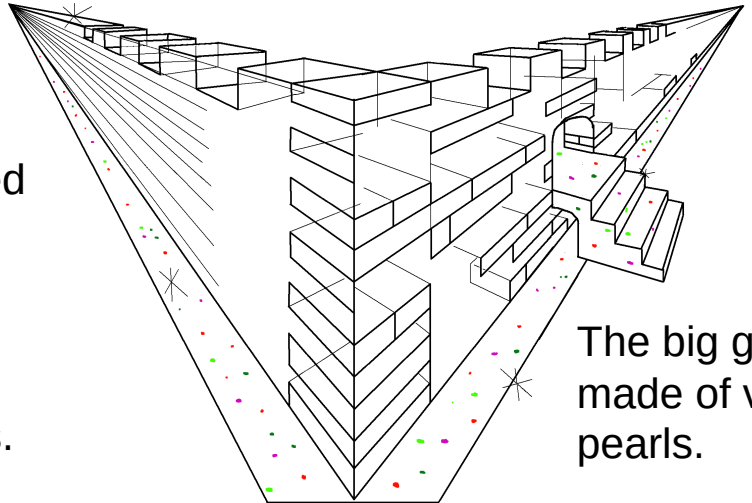

Here are some words from one of the songs: YOU ARE DESERVED TO BE REDEEMED BY US TO GOD THROUGH YOUR BLOOD FROM ALL TRIBES AND NATIONS AND MADE US KING AND PRIESTS TO COME TO OUR GOD. (Revelation 5:9)

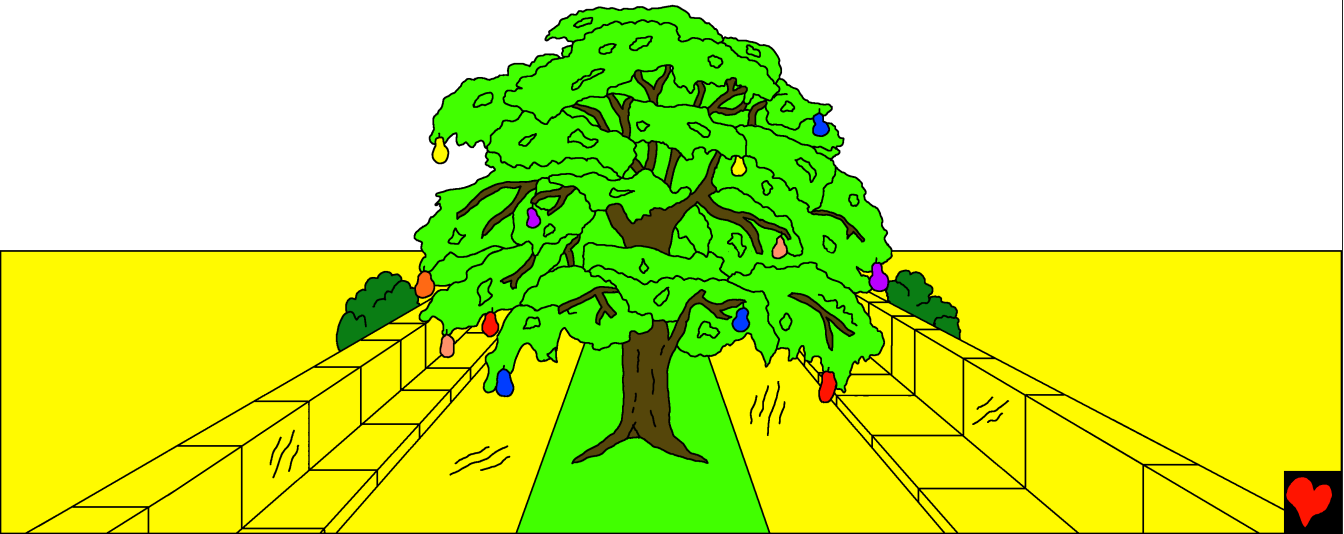

The last pages of the Bible describe Heaven as “New Jerusalem.” It is very large and has a shining wall outside. The wall is made of a stone that is clear like crystal.

The inside of the wall is filled with jewelry and precious stones, shining in various colors.

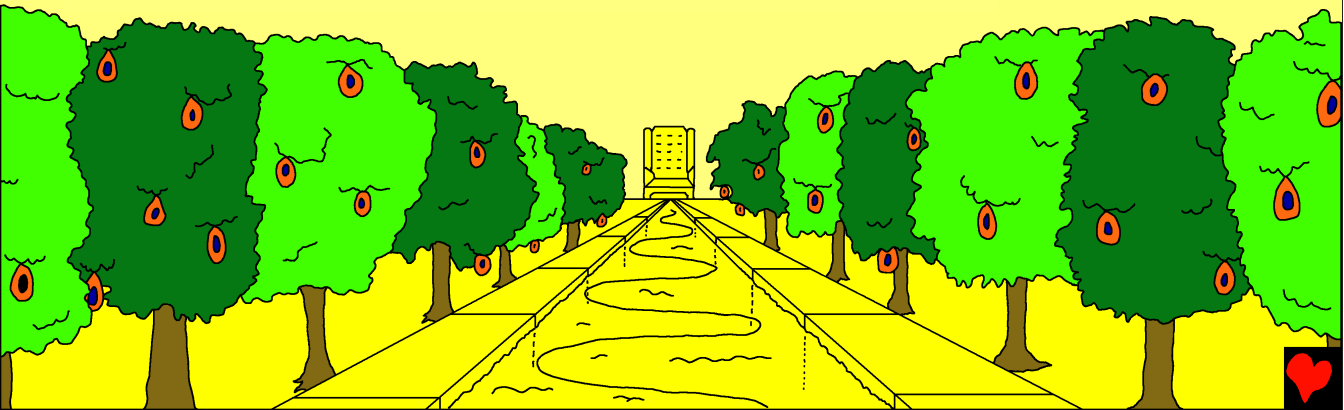

The big gates are made of very large pearls.

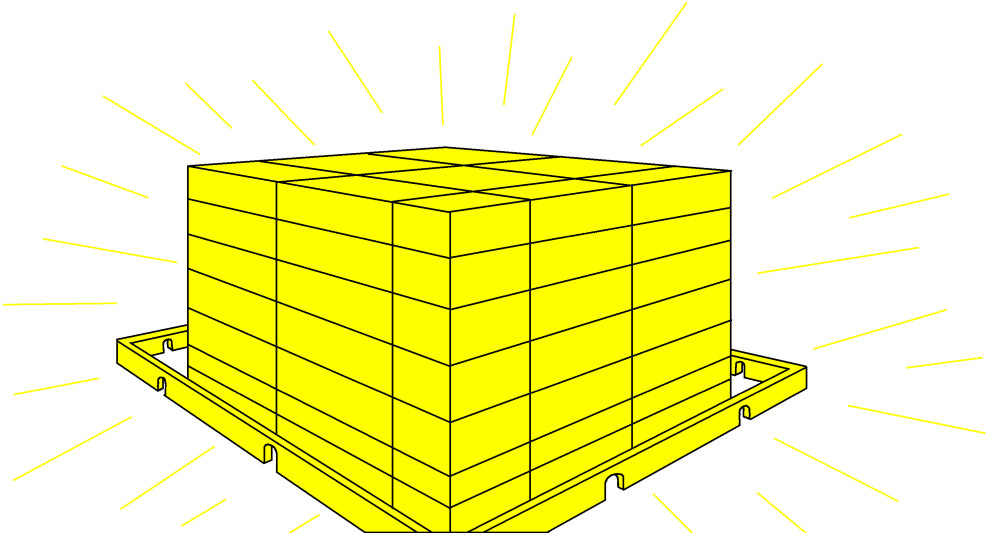

Those pearl gates are always open. We enter and look inside ... WOW! The interior of heaven is even more beautiful. The city is made of pure gold, like a clear building. Even the roads are gold.

A beautiful, clear stream flows from the throne of God. On each side of the stream is the tree of life that was first seen in the Garden of Eden. This tree is very special. It bears twelve kinds of fruit, one kind each month. And the leaves of the tree of life are used as medicine for the nations.

Heaven does not need the sun or moon to illuminate. God's own glory shines and gives dazzling light. There is no night there.

Even the animals there in Heaven are diverse. They are all playful and friendly. The wolves and the lambs together eat the grass. Even the female lions eat the meat like a cow. The Lord says, “They will not hurt or fight in all my holy mountains.”

As we walk around, we notice that there are those missing in Heaven. There are no words of anger heard. There is no fighting or quarrel.

There is no lock on the gates, because there is no thief in Heaven. There is no pig, murderer, thief, or other evil people. There is no sin there in

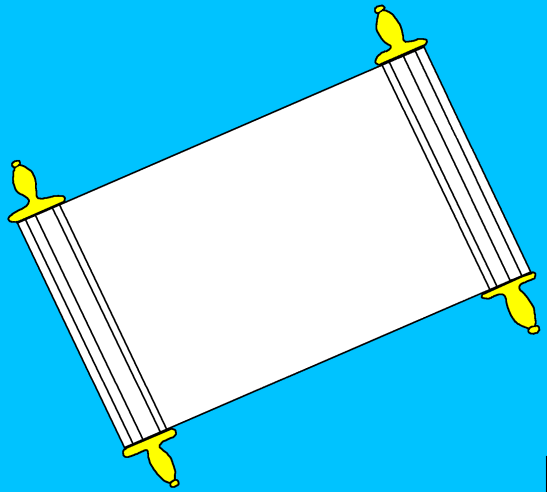

There is no crying there in Heaven with God. Sometimes, God's people cry because of great sorrow here in this life. In Heaven, God will wipe their tears.

There is no death there in Heaven. God's people will join the Lord in glory. There is no conflict, no crying, no pain. No suffering, no separation, no burial. All are happy there in Heaven forever with God.

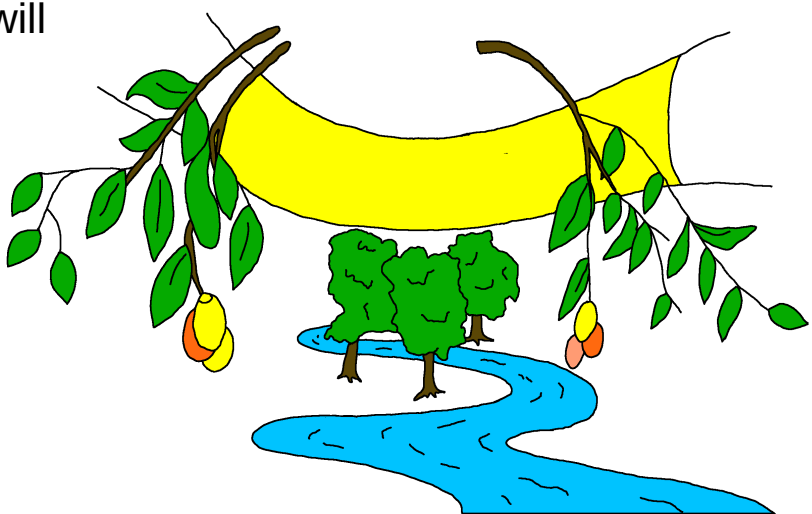

The best of all is Heaven for all boys and girls (and adults too) who believe in Jesus Christ as their Savior and follow Him as their Lord.

There, in Heaven, there is a big book called the Book of Life owned by the Lamb of God. It is filled with the names of people. Do you know which names are written there? All the people who trust in Jesus. Naa ba kaha ang i l didt ?

The last thing said in the Bible about Heaven is a beautiful invitation. “And the Spirit and the angels will say, ‘Come here!’ And the one who hears will say, ‘Come here!’ And the one who is called will follow. And anyone who wants will drink from the water of life without thirst.

Heaven, The Beautiful Home of God

Story from the Word of God, the Bible, found in

John 14; 2 Corinthians 5; Revelation 4, 21,

The coming of Your Words gives light.
Psalm 119:130

The End

This story from the Bible tells us about the wonder that God has created us and wants us to know Him.

God knows that we have done many evils. He calls this sin. Death is the punishment for sin. But God loves us very much. He sent His only Son, Jesus, to die on the cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus rose and returned to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask to be forgiven for your sins, He will do so! He will come and live within you now, and you will live with Him until eternity.

If you believe this is true, say to God: Lord Jesus, I believe that You are God, and became a man to die for my sins, and now You live again. Come into my life and forgive my sins, so that my life may change now, and then I will be with You until eternity. Help me obey You and live for You as Your child.

Read the Bible and talk to God every day! John 3:16
